

UNITED ASSOCIATION FOR LABOR EDUCATION

2016 Annual Conference

Connecting the Dots: Race, Labor, Community, and Education

Washington D.C. April 13-16, 2016

More Information: www.uale.org

Make Reservations with Hotel:
Kellogg Conference Hotel
800 Florida Ave, N.E.
Washington, DC 20002
(202)651-6000

UNITED ASSOCIATION FOR
LABOR EDUCATION

Connecting the Dots: Race, Labor, Community, and Education

Kellogg Conference Center Hotel
Washington, D.C.
April 13-16, 2016

Make lodging reservations directly with the Hotel.
Kellogg Conference Center Hotel
800 Florida Ave NE, Washington, DC 20002 (202) 651-6000
Rates: Single/Double $179, Triple/Quad $199
Group Code: United Association for Labor Education 2016 Conference

"Our movement is of the working people, for the working people, by the working people."

-Samuel Gompers

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The United Association for Labor Education (UALE) invites labor educators, community organizers, organizers based in worker centers, and others committed to worker education to join together in Washington, D.C. for a conference that strives to address the complex challenges facing working people. UALE seeks proposals on how labor education can connect race, labor, and community to promote empowerment through education.

Proposals may draw from all disciplines and take many forms, including strategic or academic reports or posters; qualitative or quantitative analyses; teaching demonstrations; labor history research, curriculum for adults or K-12; union membership training tools; case studies; roundtable discussions; general curriculum design; music, art, including public art, and theater.

PROPOSAL DEADLINES

December 5: Deadline for proposals for individual, group, panel, and poster presentations. Send proposals to Tony Michael at UALE.conference@gmail.com. (Please note: Those submitting paper proposals, full-length manuscripts are expected by April 1, 2016.)

December 19: Deadline for proposals from Working Groups. (Popular Education, Worker-Writers, K-12 Labor in the Schools, Online-Learning, Immigration/Globalization, Central Labor Councils). Contact information for Working Groups is at www.ualc.org. New participants always welcome.

December 21: Deadline for proposals for papers from students for the scholarship competition. Students should send proposals to Sarah Laslett at slaslett@uoregon.edu.

January 1, 2016: Deadline for Best Book, Outstanding Contribution and Lifetime Achievement Award nominations. Send these nominations to Kitty Conlan at kathleenconlan@verizon.net.

See www.ualc.org for details about awards and the nomination process.

REGISTRATION

Register Early and SAVE!

Registration Options	Early By January 31	Regular* After January 31
Member	$325	$400
Non-Member	$425	$500
Community Based Labor Educators	$100	$150
Student, low-income, or unemployed	$ 75	$150
One Day Registration	$150	$200

Online registration closes March 25, 2016. After this date, registration will be available at the conference with cash or check payment.

Vendor registration, please visit www.ualc.org or contact Tony Michael at UALE.conference@gmail.com.

Members, who register by January 31 will receive your 2016 UALE membership at the special conference rate of $75! Student, retiree, or low income membership rates are also available.

Registration materials including more information about proposals available at uale.org.

Questions about the conference should go to Tony Michael at UALE.conference@gmail.com.

Membership in UALE is open to all persons engaged in or preparing to engage in labor education regardless of their race, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, disability, religious or political beliefs.

Labor Education programs, unions, and other organizations engaged in labor education are eligible for institutional membership. Labor education is defined as education to advance the collective needs and interests of working people.

UNITED ASSOCIATION FOR
LABOR EDUCATION

P.O. Box 598, Lanham, MD 20703